

Undergraduate Summer Workshop in the Interdisciplinary Study of Mind and Brain at the University of Pennsylvania

We are now accepting applications for our Undergraduate Summer Workshop in the Interdisciplinary Study of Mind and Brain Sciences, scheduled June 4-17, 2017. This year's topics are (1) Social and Decision Sciences and (2) Computational Neuroscience. Participants will attend lectures from distinguished researchers these fields, participate in labs and lab tours involving some of the latest technologies and research methods, and attend panel discussions on the future of interdisciplinary mind and brain studies as well as career and professional development in these fields.

Students with a strong interest in social and decision sciences and/or computational neuroscience are encouraged to apply. We strongly encourage students from underrepresented groups to apply. Summer Workshop participants will receive free room and board on campus, plus a travel stipend.

Applications are due March 15th. For more information, please see our website: <http://web.sas.upenn.edu/cogsci/summer/>
